The EFA 2020 Program is online and registration is open

Dear EFA members and friends,

We are delighted to share information about the first virtual EFA Annual Meeting taking place on August 20–21, 2020. The conference program is now online and registration is open.

The EFA 2020 program

The conference will take place on Thursday-Friday, August 20–21, 2020 starting from 1:30pm Central European Summer Time. All sessions (excluding networking events) are recorded and available for viewing to all registered participants until August 31, 2020. The program includes sessions featuring 243 papers; a keynote address by Ulrike Malmendier – Edward J. and Mollie Arnold Professor of Finance at the Haas School of Business, University of California at Berkeley; a poster session; and networking events.

Online program is available at www.conftool.com/efa2020/sessions.php.

Registration

Registration to the conference is open and free of charge. Links to connect to the virtual conference are accessible only for registered participants via the online program.

Registration is done via ConfTool. Please use your existing account or create a new one:
www.conftool.com/efa2020.

We will post additional logistic information as we get closer to the conference dates.

EFA membership

This year the conference is completely free of charge. However, the EFA's activities depend on its members. If you would like to support us by becoming an EFA member for 2020, you can do so by purchasing membership here: efa2020.efa-meetings.org/submission/efa-membership.

We appreciate your support!

Thank you all for the support and understanding over the past weeks.
I hope you will join us and take part in this year's meeting.
